county supervisors to away last barriers to Tuesday when they adoption of part one revised version of the protective covenants stated for the sale, and use of industrial land to conform other requirements.

covenants were a Monday by the Port and Commission in consultation. Outrigger principals, Charles 'Chuck' DeViney, and Robert DeMoss, treasurer, of Outriggers and Gulfport.

Amendments requested approval construction of water frontage property definition, and property was then given with the formal signing of their contract by the supervisors, subject to confirmation of company name by the Secretary of State.

Under the contract's terms, Outriggers will purchase 20 acres for $50,000 taking a further, adjoining, 20 acres under option at $500 per year for a maximum option period of five years. When exercised the option will be picked-up at a further $50,000 price.

Outriggers will also operate an ice plant, for the benefit of their own craft and other commercial vessels utilizing the facility, as well as taking all types of seafood from the raw state through the retail sale of the finished product. Further they envisage a chain of franchised outlets stretching, ultimately, from coast to coast.

Production will begin in a prefabricated type freezer plant which will be established and working within a week.

Cleaning is underway and the placement and initial dock construction and measurement has begun.

With an eye to pollution control, waste products will be heat treated and reduced to plant food. No objectionable odors will be permitted and strict quality control will ensure an easily acceptable product on the open market.

Jones, when addressing the supervisors, said they are attempting to have everything in full swing by the opening of this year's shrimp season.

Local people will be given preference for employment at the plant Jones said and added that he hoped sufficient employees can be found before opening doors for business.

Under the purchase agreement, Outriggers will pay $10,000 down and the balance at the rate of $979.76 per month at six percent interest.

No water supply to the site is available, Outriggers agreed to pay the cost of such boring and casing deducting same from purchase price.

Terry Feeney, Inc. Awarded Contract

Terry Feeney, Inc., of Waveland, and Brooks Construction, Inc., of Purvis, were awarded a $368,364.81 railroad spur-line grade building contract Tuesday by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

The bid had been stayed back and forward between the supervisor and the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission after the latter imposed an alternate bid of $375,000, which was shorter than the original bid.

The original bid was $375,000, and the alternate bid was $375,000.

the job could be completed in the 120-day time period provided by the bid.

Both bids involved the employment of unclassified, on-site materials but vary in time limit from 120 to 180 days. The original bid was accepted as low bid under Alternate 1 of the bidding specifications. The new period is that bid by the Feeney

Brooks concern under Alternative 2.

We introduce the port Commissioners by ... Novillo R. Jacob Public Relations Officer Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission

HANCOCK COUNTY REPORTS

"Goal of port commission told" The Port and Harbor Commission of this county has but one objective - the creation of jobs to firm up the county's economy over the long haul.

There is no great political gimmick or complicated plan of operation nor, as has been hinted at a time or two, a deliberate attempt being made by a group of unnamed theys to confuse the voters.

The port and harbor commissioners are not elected but are appointed by the five best supervisors, the City of Bay St. Louis, and the Town of Waveland.

The port and harbor office is located behind the Gulf National Bank Building on Highway 90 in Bay St. Louis and is open and staffed each working day.

Engineering studies, feasibility reports, maps and charts of operations are on public display and may be viewed by interested parties without prior appointment.

There are no secrets and no hidden "whatsoever."

There are a lot of positive factors and there are fortunately a few politicians and public servants willing to put their future on the line to try and bring payrolls to the county.

It's that simple:

The port and airport projects now underway did not start with the commission's formation but came about because of pressures brought to bear on the board of supervisors by various civic groups.

The port at Muletto Bay, for instance, was the brainchild of the Bay St. Louis Jaycees, who approached the Board of Supervisors in 1960, about two years before the Port and Harbor Commission was formed.

Saving on the Bay St. Louis waterfront, the port authority was formed in 1961, and the port opened in 1963.

The airport, on the other hand, was the brainchild of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, which approached the Board of Supervisors in 1962, and the airport opened in 1964.

Both of these projects were successful, and the port and airport are now major contributors to the county's economy.

Annunciation School Present Musical Tour

A musical tour of five generations of American history will be presented by the boys and girls of Annunciation grade school in their auditorium at Kiln Saturday evening, starting at 8 o'clock. This original musical is entitled, "Let There Be Music," or "Excadrin Headache No. 101."

Finishing touches are being put on the musical this week, as teachers rehearse the pupils in their song-and-dance routines every spare moment. The school's volunteer caretaker, Robert Duhon, is building the sets which Father Canisius Hayes, pastor of Kiln's Catholic mission church, designs. Scenes are being painted by several of the teachers. Helping with the dance routines is the school's principal, Sister Clara Francis, who has had a hobby of dancing since childhood.

Mother of the boys and girls are often busy late at night sewing the colorful costumes which the musical calls for.

Planning and rehearsing the show is Mary Victoria, the director, assisted by four other teachers: Estelle O'Donnell, Dorothy Ozog, Phyllis Cloutier and Janet Thayer. Handing publicity and programs is another teacher, Roxanne Doran.

According to the last count, 110 boys and girls are in the musical.

Law Enforcement Assessor Thompson, a resident of the United States Air Force, has held a range of responsible posts and received several decorations and awards, including the du Merite Sociale, Republic of France, United States Air Force Commendation Medal, and the Air Force Good Conduct Medal.

As Law Enforcement Assessor, Thompson will be consulting local law enforcement and court agencies in the collection of data, evaluation of programs, and preparation of a comprehensive plan for upgrading physical facilities, personnel training, and administrative procedures. He will be advised by an Advisory Council which ultimately will be named shortly, and present the Gulf Region Planning Commission has been designated the administrative agency for the campaign for Hancock, Harrison, Pearl River and Tangipahoa counties.

Thompson is active in a number of civic and professional organizations, and is a member of the former Miss Dabbs, a native of Mississippi.

I will be forever grateful.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN
HEROES WITH NEW IMAGE

One of our nation's largest standing armies consists of 1,300,000 unsung heroes who work the year-round without pay. These are the volunteer firemen who protect America's small towns and hamlets everywhere. Often called "Vamps," these volunteers are made up of dentists, truck drivers, and auto mechanics -- just about every trade and profession imaginable.

A few years ago, the 21,000 fire departments across the country had equipment of uncertain quality and vintage. The big aim of members was a good time in the clubby atmosphere around the station house.

Today, that situation has changed radically, according to James Winchester, writing in the May issue of Popular Science Monthly.

For their gallantry in action, Vamps have often received some of the most coveted medals in the country, says Winchester. What's more, "they operate the latest pumper, foam and rescue trucks, aerial ladders, and ambulances, in a thoroughly professional manner."

The Popular Science article notes that voluntary departments today handle 136,000 motorized fire apparatus -- with new equipment being bought at the rate of $63 million each year.

Each man alone has some $200 to $250 worth of air and oxygen gear, walkie talkies, resuscitators, portable flood lights and other tools. The basic fire fighting weapon is the two-and-a-half inch hose -- and our nation's volunteers have enough to stretch 84 million miles.

Basic to a good department, of course, is manpower. Next, according to Winchester, is a first-rate community water system with enough hydrants.

One of the latest innovations in fire fighting gear is new high-expansion foam -- a liquid mixture which is sprayed in front of a fan and then blown through a mesh cloth. It can smother a blaze in a 20,000 cubic foot basement in 7 minutes.

Other new innovations include high-rise aerial platforms (or "snorkels") which operate at elevated water towers, and gas turbine engines which are supplanting the old-style piston engine. They start easily in cold weather, take up half the space of the old piston types, and can pump almost four times as much water per minute.

New types of aerial ladders utilizing aluminum and other lightweight materials are finding increasing use.

Another new innovation is the 300,000 candle power light for emergency illumination. Hand-held, it can be used in or out of the vehicle and comes with 12-foot heavy duty cable that plugs right into the dash-board.

New alarm and alert systems are also becoming standard equipment. In one community, a volunteer dispatcher records the type of fire and its location on tape as soon as an alarm sounds. Simultaneously a button rings phones in every volunteer's home or business in town. The taped message is repeated automatically as each fireman answers. If the line is busy, the call "camps" and rings again when free.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

A candidate for mayor visited our home recently. He handed out a card, and said that he would appreciate anything we could do to help him.

I think he has missed the point. He should have said, "What can we do together to help Bay St. Louis become the city it could be?"

All of us who love Bay St. Louis, in spite of mud, dust, mosquitoes, would look out our city windows in the hope of a potential new candidate. Perhaps we might see that we are all so used to seeing that they have become part of the landscape.

Driving around the Bay every day we all see constant reminders of abuses. A partial list would include the remains of the city pier at Dasher, a shell of a house also on the beach near Dasher, high grass and weeds along many streets, neglected lots, missing street signs, and bags of trash thrown here and there. The list of眼ores could go on and on.

No matter what the outcome of the election, here is an opportunity for everyone in Bay St. Louis to make a new start in getting along together in peace and harmony. We have many fine civic groups who do much to beautify the city, but they need all of us working together to build a city we can be proud of.

Very truly yours,

MRS. GEORGE GRUNBLATT

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

One of the main purposes of the Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary is to encourage its members to render service of a humanitarian nature to children in our community. We would therefore like to voice our concern about the welfare of the children playing on the beach since the old protective sea wall has been demolished. We feel that the safety of the children using the beach was not considered in the construction of the new beach road, and we hope that some corrective measures will be taken before a child is injured or killed.

Very truly yours,

SUE HERNSLEY

facilities; development plans should be revised to reflect the county's ability to finance.

All these findings were made available to the county and formed the basis for the formation of the Hancock County Development Group.

The commission itself was formed under the authority of House Bill No. 435, approved by the State legislature on June 1, 1962. The bill authorized any state agency not then having a Port Authority or County Development Commission, to create a Port and Harbor Commission. After spelling out the physical formation of such a group and its jurisdiction, the bill cleared the way for a two mill tax levy for the purpose of providing operating expenses.

First session of the commission was on March 20, 1963, and those signing the initial waiver of notice of suit meeting, the first commissioners, were Arlie R. Strain, Claude R. Graham, Norton Haas, Vernon Haas, Dr. A. K. Marzolinich, Jr., James M. Robert, and H. H. Shattuck.

The firm of Michael Baker, Jr., of Jackson, Miss., was engaged as the commission's consulting engineers and was promptly instructed to undertake a feasibility study of possible county-wide port and harbor and industrial development.

This study was followed by a preliminary planning report, and later, a master industrial development plan.

This master plan was delivered in August, 1965 and later adopted by the supervisors as a guide to proposed county industrial development.

Now on to the airport which was not originally under the commission's terms of reference but was turned over to them by the supervisors in a motion dated Aug. 24, 1965.

The supervisors took the action after several civic groups and individuals had approached them with requests for a new county facility. These pleas were enhanced with assurance by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration at Mississippi Test Facility that such an airport would be of great advantage and economic gain to their organization.

The Michael Baker engineering concern was then instructed to undertake a site selection study, the results of which were tendered to the commission on Oct. 19, 1965.

The engineers recommended a site located north of Interstate Highway 10, south of Jourdan River, with access of Route 603, with the runway located immediately inside the MTF Buffer Zone.

An airport master plan was computed by Michael Baker's representatives and accepted by the port group on Jan. 13, 1966. This told of the various agencies involved in the construction of such a flying facility, matching funds available, construction methods and phases, and possible utilization.

To further substantiate the worth, commercial airline representatives expressed interest in the location with one making immediate overture for landing rights.

In joint session with the supervisors the port and harbor commission called on their sponsors to issue $750,000 worth of general obligation bonds for initial airport construction, and a $1 million like issue for commencement of operations at Mulatto Bayou. Both to be repaid by utilization of the one and three quarter cent excise tax, or road protection gasoline tax, refunded to the county by the state under Section 8514, Recompiled Mississippi Code Ann. (1942), for use by the county Port and Harbor Commission. Such bonds therefore to be issued without any increase in county taxes.

In agreeing to authorize the issue, at their session later the same day, the supervisors said in resolution, in part, "... Be it resolved that this board does hereby find, as was found at the March, 1963 meeting, that the economic resources of Hancock County, Mississippi, can be developed to their fullest by a planned industrial program consisting of, among other things, the development of waterways in said county, acquisition of land for the development of industrial sites, construction of wharves, docks, sheds and other similar facilities, reclamation of bottom lands for the purposes stated, and the promotion of the industrial resources of said county..."

The bonds were sold on March 21, 1966 to the First National Bank of Memphis, Tenn., at 4.257 percent interest and the show went on the road.

Next week we will cover initial port and airport construction, progress to date, and present aims and objectives.

Inquiries are welcome and should be forwarded to Neville R. Jacob, Public Relations Officer, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, P. O. Box 69, Bay St. Louis, Miss. 39520.

General contractors exceeding time limits on future county port and harbor building contracts will probably face court action.

The decision to add teeth to county contract penalty clauses was made Monday when the board of supervisors instructed port attorney Michael Haas to make sure any future bid proposals include both the premium and penalty clause.

The action followed a hearing on the railroad spur grade construction bids, all with varying time limits.

Hill said he could see where change orders would be necessary had the original railroad low bid been approved because of the short time period. Such orders, he said, would result in lost time and an uncompleted railroad spur when such an item was in urgent demand by industrial prospects.

He said that without the premium clause he doubted if any court would view a penalty clause with favor. A contractor would simply claim he had tried to complete the job on time but through adverse weather conditions and the like it had proved impossible.

St. Rose de Lima School
Announces Science Fair Winners

St. Rose de Lima School sponsored a Spring Science Fair, organized and directed by Sister John, S. Sp. S., mat and science teacher, for children in grades one through eight on May 6, 7, and 8. The judges, Mrs. E. Isham, Mrs. J. Drummond, and Mrs. Mary Davenport of the Headstart Program at St. Rose, Sister James, S. Sp. S., Principal, and Sister Justina, S. Sp. S., Librarian, awarded first and second place ribbons to children in three divisions: Division I, first and second graders; Division II, third and fourth graders; and Division III, children in grades five through eight. Projects were judged on originality, neatness, and the use of scientific procedures.

Robin Lizana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Lizana,

ROBIN LIZANA won first place in the St. Rose de Lima School Spring Science Fair. Her project was entitled "My Friends the Insects." The most fascinating part of Robin's display was a glass covered display case containing over 50 insects.

won first place in Division III for project entitled "My Friends the Insects." Robin's display included a special net for catching flying insects, the different jars and materials needed to prepare the captured insect for mounting, a large, labeled drawing of a typical insect, and an interesting well-done notebook containing research work recorded in several written reports on specific insects. The most fascinating part of Robin's display, however, was a 1 1/2 by 2 foot, glasscovered display case containing over 50 neatly labeled, mounted insects of several orders including Lepidoptera (butterfly, moth), Orthoptera (locust, grasshopper, katydid, preying mantis, cockroach), Coleoptera (water bug, beetle), Hymenoptera (bee, wasp, ant), Odonata (green darner, dragonfly, damselfly), Homoptera (cicada), Dermaptera, Neuroptera (golden-eye lacewing), Diptera (fly), and Hemiptera (harlequin bug).

Yolande Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bradley, and Emile Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emile Smith, tied for second place in Division III. Yolande's project entitled "Turtles" included a live pond terrapin whose physical condition and activities during the period of captivity were described in detail in a well-written research paper. Emile's project "Projected Moon Shot" included two detailed diagrams of a rocket and of the actual route of the rocket in its trip to the moon. Other projects in Division III included "The Heart," "Wet and Dry Thermometer," "Setting up Electric Currents," "An Electromagnet," "Leaves," and "Tree Bark."

In Division II, Edward Diggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Diggs, won both first and second place ribbons for his two projects: "The Story of Digestion" and "Iron Objects." In Division I, Kim Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bradley, won first place for her charming display of different kinds of nuts. Jeffrey Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wallace,

Charles Elliott

Retires From Kaiser

Charles H. Elliott has retired from Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation after nearly 23 years of service. Elliott joined Kaiser as a power plant foreman in 1946 at the company's Mead, Wash., reduction plant. He also worked for three years at corporate headquarters in Oakland, Calif., and spent 14 years in various management positions at the Chalmette Works.

He was on a special assignment as senior power engineer at Chalmette at the time of his retirement.

A native of Spokane, Wash., Elliott resides with his wife Thelma at their "Mistletoe" home in Waveland, Miss.

His retirement plans are many and varied but, as he puts it, "won't be taking it easy". One possibility is the establishment of an antique business.

Elliott graduated from Lewis & Clark High School in Spokane in 1921, and attended Gonzaga University and Washington State University. He is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Louisiana Engineering Society.

Miss Collette Zimmerman

Named Miss Popularity at SSC

In the closest race in the history of the Miss Popularity contest, annually sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Sideline Club, Miss Collette Zimmerman emerged as Miss Popularity of 1969. Miss Zimmerman was Freshman A class of St. Stanislaus.

In second place and only 1200 votes behind the winner was Miss Janelle Ladner. Miss Ladner had held a commanding lead until shortly before the deadline on Sunday night, May 4. Miss Ladner was sponsored by the students of Sophomore C class. Only 753 votes separated the third place winner, Miss Joyce Zengarling, from Miss Janelle Ladner. Miss Zengarling's sponsors were the students of Freshman B.

In fourth place was Miss Penny Guest the candidate of the boys of Senior B. Until the final tally Miss Guest had a firm hold on the third place. A final surge before the deadline by Miss Janelle Ladner dropped Miss Guest into the fourth position. In the final spot of fifth was Miss Denise Ladner. Her total vote was 4975. Miss Denise Ladner was the candidate of the students of Sophomore B.

The three winners were named at the close of the St. Stanislaus Sideline Club Annual Fair on Sunday night at 9:00 p.m. Each of these young ladies received a trophy and gift certificates. MR. ROBERT CLAPP IS SHOWN WITH LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN J.C. KOENENN AS HE TAKES DELIVERY OF HIS NICE CLEAN USED CAR.

Mr. Robert (Bobby) Clapp of Hancock North Central School needed a second car, so he called J.C. Koenenn of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis and told him to be on the lookout for one. A few days later J.C. called Mr. Clapp and told him to come down and take a look at what he had in a good clean used car. Just as Mr. Clapp had requested, J.C. had a very clean low mileage car with air conditioning and at a reasonable price. Mr. Clapp recommends J.C. Koenenn to all of his friends who might be in the market for a new car or used car or truck. The folks at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet sure try hard to please everyone.

ADV.

FOR THE FIRST time in the 10 year history of this column we've exhausted our repertoire of "winters". We had a rather close call during another late, late, spring several years ago—the first unseasonably chilly spell was, of course, dewberry and/or blackberry winter, followed by dogwood, Easter Lily, locust and finally, liguistum, winters! All of the foregoing have come and gone and we even christened one brief cold spell strawberry winter, but with the arrival of a real, rather the beginning of the second week in May, we gave up!

NORMALLY, RESIDENTS of this warmer-than-moderate climate are safe in storing blankets, coats and all but one light woolen garment immediately after Easter; if the date doesn't arrive before April 1st, in 1969, we've had so many sweaters, skirts, slacks, etc., for the "last time" of the season so many times that most will be threadbare when fall arrives. Summer wear is also beginning to look a little shabby after being scooted about from closet to closet hopefully, and local women's shop owners report that bathing suit sales took a brief upsurge six weeks ago and have been almost nil since. Air conditioning units also remain on store shelves as do colorful assortments of inflatable beach paraphernalia. While many days have been coolish for swimming, they've been just perfect for other sports, and gardeners have been blessed with breezes that have made manual labor much more bearable than it usually is around this time of year. Of course, by the time this reaches print the thermometer will indubitably be hovering near the 90 degree mark, but we think that the weekend's early morning temperatures came close to breaking all records for almost the middle of May on the gulf coast.

WORKERS AND PATRONS at the annual St. Stanislaus Side-line Club Fair also shivered as they battled an incessant east wind last Saturday and Sunday. In fact your sweaterless reporter was forced to cut short our round of all booths, so will have an incomplete report on the affair. Some spotted between shivers included Mamie and Max Gianelloni, Carmen and Cliff (Toby) Plaza, Flora Mauffray, Oleah (Mrs. O.W.) Delph, and her most attractive daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joe Delph, who had acquired her citizenship papers the previous day. Also, Anna and Gilbert Gaynor, Arlene and Charlie Kieser, Bec Ladner, Doris and Pat Burke, Mattie and D. W. North, Al Summy, Dot and Joe Kersanac, Cyril Clover, Roseanne and Teddo Thomas, Rose (Mrs. Wiley) Cole, Pat and Buddy Pitalo, Marion and Russell Elliott, Ruth and Fred Curst, Mary Alice and Joe Bonvenuti, and many, many others.

THE WEATHER GODS were also unfriendly to the Women of Christ Episcopal Church, but despite the fact that Jupiter Pluvius did his worst, a large crowd battled the deluge and attended the lovely silver tea held at the Beach Boulevard home of Mabel (Mrs. N.L.) Carter, Gladys (Mrs. James) Roberts, chairman and hostesses, Holland (Mrs. Tom) Garner, Harriet (Mrs. Charles) Johnson and Virginia (Mrs. J.W.) Watts assisted Mabel in greeting guests. Pouring and serving were Emily (Mrs. Rene) de Montuzin, Nell (Mrs. Bill) Frisbie, Lynn (Mrs. H. Reed) Frisbie, Patty (Mrs. Charles) Agnew, Eunice (Mrs. Basil) Cockshott, Hal (Mrs. Fred) Hoagland and Ann (Mrs. Dix) Ashman. Mrs. Elizabeth Homes presided over the guest register. Some in attendance included Jean (Mrs. Herbert) Ratenburg, Marie (Mrs. Ray Gordon) Jean (Mrs. Gordon) Gleim, Lila (Mrs. George) Greenfield, Rebecca (Mrs. Leo) Seal, Pinky (Mrs. J.C. Baxter) Mary Louise (Mrs. John) Stern, Grace (Mrs. Herb) Baron, Mrs. C.C. McDonald, Valda (Mrs. James) Evans, Jo (Mrs. Omer) de Bever, Elsie (Mrs. Vic) Laweau, Mrs. Charles Gallessero, Mrs. Horace Thompson, Sr. Edwina (Mrs. Eugene) Mogabgab, Lou (Mrs. Winthrop) Baker and Mrs. Dwyn Mounjer, just to mention a few.

THE CHARLES H. WHITES and Mrs. Alma Quintini recently returned from a visit to Houston, Tex., where the Whites were guests of Mrs. Jack Hale and Mrs. Quintini visited with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Raymond, Jr. The Whites, then, drove into Mexico where they visited numerous points of interest while Mrs. Quintini stopped off in Galveston to spend a few days with other members of her family.

NAOMI AND HACK Doyle entertained informally at dinner last Sunday. Their guests were Fran and Urban Stork and Louise and Joe Wymer.

LOUISE AND JOE had as Mother's Day guests her son Gene Watkins, wife Pat and daughters Rene, Cheryl and Candace. On Saturday night Doris and Jack Sezenau joined the family for dinner.

A COUPLE of tourists, Angie (Mrs. Jake) Morreals and Bertha (Mrs. Alvin) Jenin journeyed from the Bay to take in the Friday night benefit at St. Clare's Parish hall. Some others spotted in the crowd included Thelma Landry, Margaret Varnell, Linda and Tom Kidd, Bob Hubbard, Gerri and Sam Blanchard, Milford (Sis) Means, Joan (Mrs. Al) Bernard, Eunice (Mrs. Fonsie) Favre, Mrs. Alton Staffel, Connie and Joe Bludnick, and a number of others who are on hand each Friday night.

ALSO PRESENT was James E. Hedges who accompanied wife Florence. She is justifiably proud of her husband, a Gunner's Mate First Class in the U.S. Navy. He is now at home on leave after graduating from the Marine Corps Ordnance School at Quantico, Va., as second in his class with an academic average of 99.42. James was also presented Meritorious Man Award, and a golden hammer acknowledging his workable design of a movie screen which may be viewed from two sides.

DOTING PARENTS AND grandparents watched tiny Sue Quinn eat her first cake on Saturday, May 2. The party was hosted by her maternal grandmother, Muriel Myrlan, and paternal grandmother, Marjorie and Charles Quinlan and his physicians. He spent over two months in an oxygen tent in the local hospital and was so critically ill at one time that his son Clarence was called home from Germany on an emergency leave.

FISHING AND HUNTING NEWS - Unusually low tides for this time of year have lengthened the soft shell crab and floundering season. Some soft shells have even been picked up before darkness fell by torchless beachcombers. Frog hunters have reported some good catches, but we won't mention any names as we're a bit vague as to regulations concerning bagging the big croakers.

COMPLAINT DEPARTMENT - With the removal of the seawall, huge sand drifts make parking along the beach-front hazardous if not impossible in many spots. Don't know what can be done to keep the beach where it belongs, but unless someone comes up with a remedy, wrecker owners are going to have a very profitable summer.

ANIMAL NOTES - More kittens, Libby Hemmer has four fluffy felines which have just reached an adoptable age. Two are tortoise shell in color. For further information, phone Libby at 467-9339.

LIFE HAS hardly been dull for Jeanette Handschoe since she and her family moved into their new Piney Ridge Road after Mr. Handschoe's retirement from the U.S. Marine Corps. Jeanette, her three children and one belonging to a neighbor, were crabbing near Clermont Harbor last week when she spotted a four year old tot floundering in water over her head in a deep culvert. Fully clothed, Jeanette leapt to the rescue and retrieved the little girl. The victim was little worse for the experience, but her benefactor received numerous lacerations on her feet and ankles and was given first aid by Anna (Mrs. Britt) Ross and Hazel (Mrs. Claude) Tracey, who also happened to be on the scene at the time of the mishap.

BUD THOMAS returned home early Friday morning after spending two weeks in Mississippi where his 84 year-old father, had major surgery.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Clusters of lavender wild phlox mingling with bright golden cosmos in vacant lots all over town; very small, bathing suit clad boys converting their beach board into an umbrella as they scampered from the suddenly rain swept beach; fledgling frogs testing their newly acquired feet as they pop in and out of murky little ponds and the husky sound of their small voices as they sing their own song of spring.

OPEN HOUSE held between 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday at Hancock General Hospital turned out to be quite a gala affair, as well as proving most informative for guests who took the Pink Lady guided tours. Over 100 signed the register and admired a really impressive showing of art arranged by Geneva (Mrs. Charles) Smith. Pictures, large and small, in every media from oils to photographs, adorned the walls; ceramic works were displayed, as were a large exhibition of embroidered articles painstaking hand worked by Merice (Mrs. Marcel) La Nasa. The most modern hospital equipment was demonstrated using two life size ladies -- A 'Mrs. Chase' and the well known 'Russianni', to explain mechanics of the defibrillator, pace maker, automatic tourniquet, etc. Almost as beautiful as the paintings was flower centered the serving table in the dining room. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, pastries, coffee and punch were served. We won't try to name those present as many had left before we arrived.

ROSE AND JOHN Rutherford and two youngest children Jan and Jeff spent last week in St. Louis, Mo., where they took in the national American Legion awards convention. They traveled in a camper and really enjoyed the trip, including visits with former Bay residents Gerry and Dick Detloff and Bea and Jim Nugent and families.

SPORTS FANS will be interested to learn that Harry Klein who writes for the Times-Picayune under the by line 'by HEK', spent the weekend in our area.

DORIS AND BALDWIN Wilday and her parents, Helen and Dan Sellen, spent the weekend in their Terrace Avenue summer home. It was their first trip 'across the lake' since Easter.

A VERY HAPPY birthday

B-WYC Smorgasbord Term'd Great Success

The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club held the Henry Chapman Memorial Fund Smorgasbord and Fashion Show last Saturday, and the evening was termed a great success.

"It took the help of many people to make it such a successful night," Ballard Argus stated. "A special thank you to the members who organized and planned such a fine array of foods for the Smorgasbord and those who helped throughout the evening working in the kitchen and replenishing the Smorgasbord. Also, the Sea Chest, who had models circulating throughout the Club displaying various fashions."

The drawing for the door prizes was a special highlight of the evening, and thanks belong to the various merchants and individuals who contributed. They are as follows:

He marvels at the majesty of the clouds and the vastness of the sky. He thrills at the reflections cast upon the water by the rainbow palette of the setting sun. He is awed, humbled—yet, at the same time, fiercely proud.

His feelings contradict each other. For he knows he is a small creature dwarfed by the overpowering glory of nature, yet, at the same time, a man—a man created in the image of God.

Of course, we all need to be humble, but we also need to be proud. In one sense we are insignificant, and in another we are all-important. The problem lies in finding the proper balance between the two.

To understand the whole man—the all of you, you must turn to His Church where God is forever revealing the mysteries of His universe. Here we are taught truths that have endured throughout the ages. Here we must come if we are to find the proper balance in life.

Remember, you don't have to spend a million to look like a million. Just be sure to get a lot more for your money. Example: Cutlass S. This one's got Olde class and quality written all over it.

There's a Rocket 350 V-8—that runs on regular gas. A genuine Olde ride and handling action that make you feel like a million, too. There's even an anti-theft steering column lock you can't get on many cars at any price.

Put them all together and they add up to extra value that goes far beyond the modest Cutlass price.

you had before.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. [sic] Doug Elliott

The weather over the past weekend was ideal for fishing. It was clear, no rain, the tides and winds were right and the fish cooperated, perfect. Good catches of bass and perch were made while salt water fishing was fair to middling.

Bob crabbing last week was pretty bad with high winds blowing and the tides were wrong. However, a few were caught in the wee hours of the morning. With predictions of good weather, plenty of soft crabs should be caught as well as flounders.

Teddo Thomas reported that he made some nice catches of soft crabs last week. Teddo is a hard fisherman and gets his share of those delicious softies.

John Scafide was home for a few days from school. He put in most of his time fishing, soft crabbing and playing golf.

Anthony M. Zimmermann was over from New Orleans. He played golf and fished while here. He got his share of fish.

Most everyone participates in some sort of sport. Bob Kyle of Atlanta says he likes them all but fishing and pool playing are his favorites.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols love their fishing. Nevin is mighty good at making hush puppies and all her friends brag about them. They are right, too. Hush puppies and fried fish or soft crabs are hard to beat when it comes to seafood delicacies.

Speaking of hush puppies they can be purchased at Lollacano's grocery already prepared and only need warming. Thought I would pass this on to hush puppy lovers.

A lot of fishermen, fishing up Jordan River, get their lunch and seafoods at the Show Boat out Main Street. It is an easy way to keep from making sandwiches or cooking. Bill Stewart is there to greet you. He is a fisherman, too.

Seems like we meet more and more fishermen. Just met Henry Thigpen, M. O. Pigot, F. S. Lumpkin, Ray Seal and Russell Pigot, 12 years old. They had been fishing up Bayou La Croix way and caught some nice green trout. According to Russell who was the speaker of the crowd, he caught his share of fish, too. The older men were punishing boiled crawfish and crabs. A nice way to end a perfect day of fishing. All are from Picayune.

The V.F.W. convention will be held at Pass Christian on May 13th. All members are urged to attend. A good time is in store for all.

It is nice to meet an ardent fisherman such as Henry Thigpen. Henry and I are the same age and have put in quite a few years catching the finny tribe. We'll make 75 in November. Probably celebrate together, out fishing, eh, Henry?

The V.F.W. convention will be held at Pass Christian on May 13th. All members are urged to attend. A good time is in store for all.

Steve Stant spent his vacation at the Bay. Steve learned to fly fish. Another good man gone wrong. Only joking, nothing better in our estimation.

Rock Bass (goggle-eye perch) are plentiful here about. They are a popular pan fish, game fighter when caught on light tackle and a good food fish. Goggle-eyes have a larger mouth than the average perch and can take a popping bug with ease. They love a black and white bait.

John L. Israel
SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Pauline Cassell is another of our lady fishermen. She showed us how to steam crabs, crawfish and other seafoods. It's a wonderful way to prepare them.

Joe Taque says hunting and fishing are the best sports. He loves both of them and gets his share of fish and game. Have to agree with him.

Louise Carver of the Swingin' Door Lounge does a lot of fishing. A native of Bay St. Louis she learned it from her father and brags about our fishing in this neck of the woods. Her favorite fish for eating is the perch, Small, but oh so sweet.

Sorry to hear that Billy Bougeois is on the sick list. Get well soon Buddy, the fish are really striking.

Tony Neciese is recuperating after an operation. His friends are glad to see him out. As a paddler, he is one of the best, barring none.

Heard from Harry Rehaul. He will be over soon to enjoy some of our fishing. Harry hails from New Orleans and is a former Congressman.

A true saying -- it's not the ice that makes you slip, it's what you mix with it.

With low tides now the water in most bayous are clearing fast. For those who don't know, White and Coward bayous are wonderful places to catch perch and green trout. They are out on highway 90 near Pearlington.

Bub Genis was over for the weekend. Probably went fishing or played golf. Bub lives in New Orleans now.

Some dumb fishermen try to tell an old timer how and where to catch fish. It's better to listen sometimes.

Little Theater to Present Odd Couple Play

The Bay St. Louis Little Theater will present its second play of the 1969 season when THE ODD COUPLE opens on May 29 for a three-night run.

Directed by Mary Carter, with Jack Gordy as a technical director, the play is an uproarious comedy in three acts written by Neil Simon, author of BAREFOOT IN THE PARK. An instant 1965 success on Broadway, where Art Carney and Walter Matthau played the leading roles with Mike Nichols directing, the play became an even greater hit in its movie version starring Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau.

Cast in leading roles are Lloyd Wilson and Burt Barrett, with supporting parts played by Joe Barbo, Victor Frankiewicz, Sr., Edward Craig, Charles Richardson, Ruth Furr, and Nannette Madden. The cast is particularly fortunate in having as its director Mrs. Carter, who won last year's Louie award as director of the prize-winning play of the year, EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL. Burt Barrett, one of the co-stars, has several times been winner of this award, and Lloyd Wilson, the other co-star, won the 1968 award as best supporting actor of the year.

Advance tickets will be on sale at De Montzlin Drug Store, where non-members may purchase them or members may have their season tickets punched to insure a seat for a particular performance.

Following THE ODD COUPLE, the Little Theatre's next production will be the musical THE MUSIC MAN, scheduled for mid-June.

St. Stanislaus Names 11 to Honor Society

On Monday, May 5, 1969, St. Stanislaus High School inducted eleven new members into the Brother Peter Basson

THOMAS E. BOYD, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Boyd of 415 Chadwick Blvd., Waveland, Miss., recently completed a 2-month tour of duty as a behavioral observer with the Navy's undersea project, TEKTTITE I.

He was one of the six men selected early in January for this duty from a large group of personnel stationed at the Naval Training Center, Orlando, Fla.

TEKTTITE, co-sponsored by the Office of Naval Research, the Department of the Interior, the Naval Aeronautics and Space Agency, and the General Electric Corporation, includes the habitat for four marine scientists for living 60 days at a depth of approximately 50 feet below the surface of the Greater Lemoshur Bay, St. Johns, the Virgin Islands.

The habitat offered most of the average daily comforts and served as a base from which the aquanauts explored the surrounding underwater world of fish and plant life as well as the geological formations.

Mrs. Duke, Council president, conducted the business session.

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would be the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that has a picnic lunch. Every boater who cruises the waters of waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Little Bit Helps. This is our land. Let's treat it right.
